Annual Staff

Foreword

Though time will pass and we shall part, this book will be an unbreakable link in our chain of memories.

A yearbook is the fondest and most treasured memory of our high school years. It reminds us of the teachers, classmates, activities, events, and sports which we knew and were a part of as students. It is no small task to plan and put together a yearbook, as any Senior can tell you; but we believe the result--that of creating a book which will be the storehouse of memories for us in years to come--to be well worth the effort.

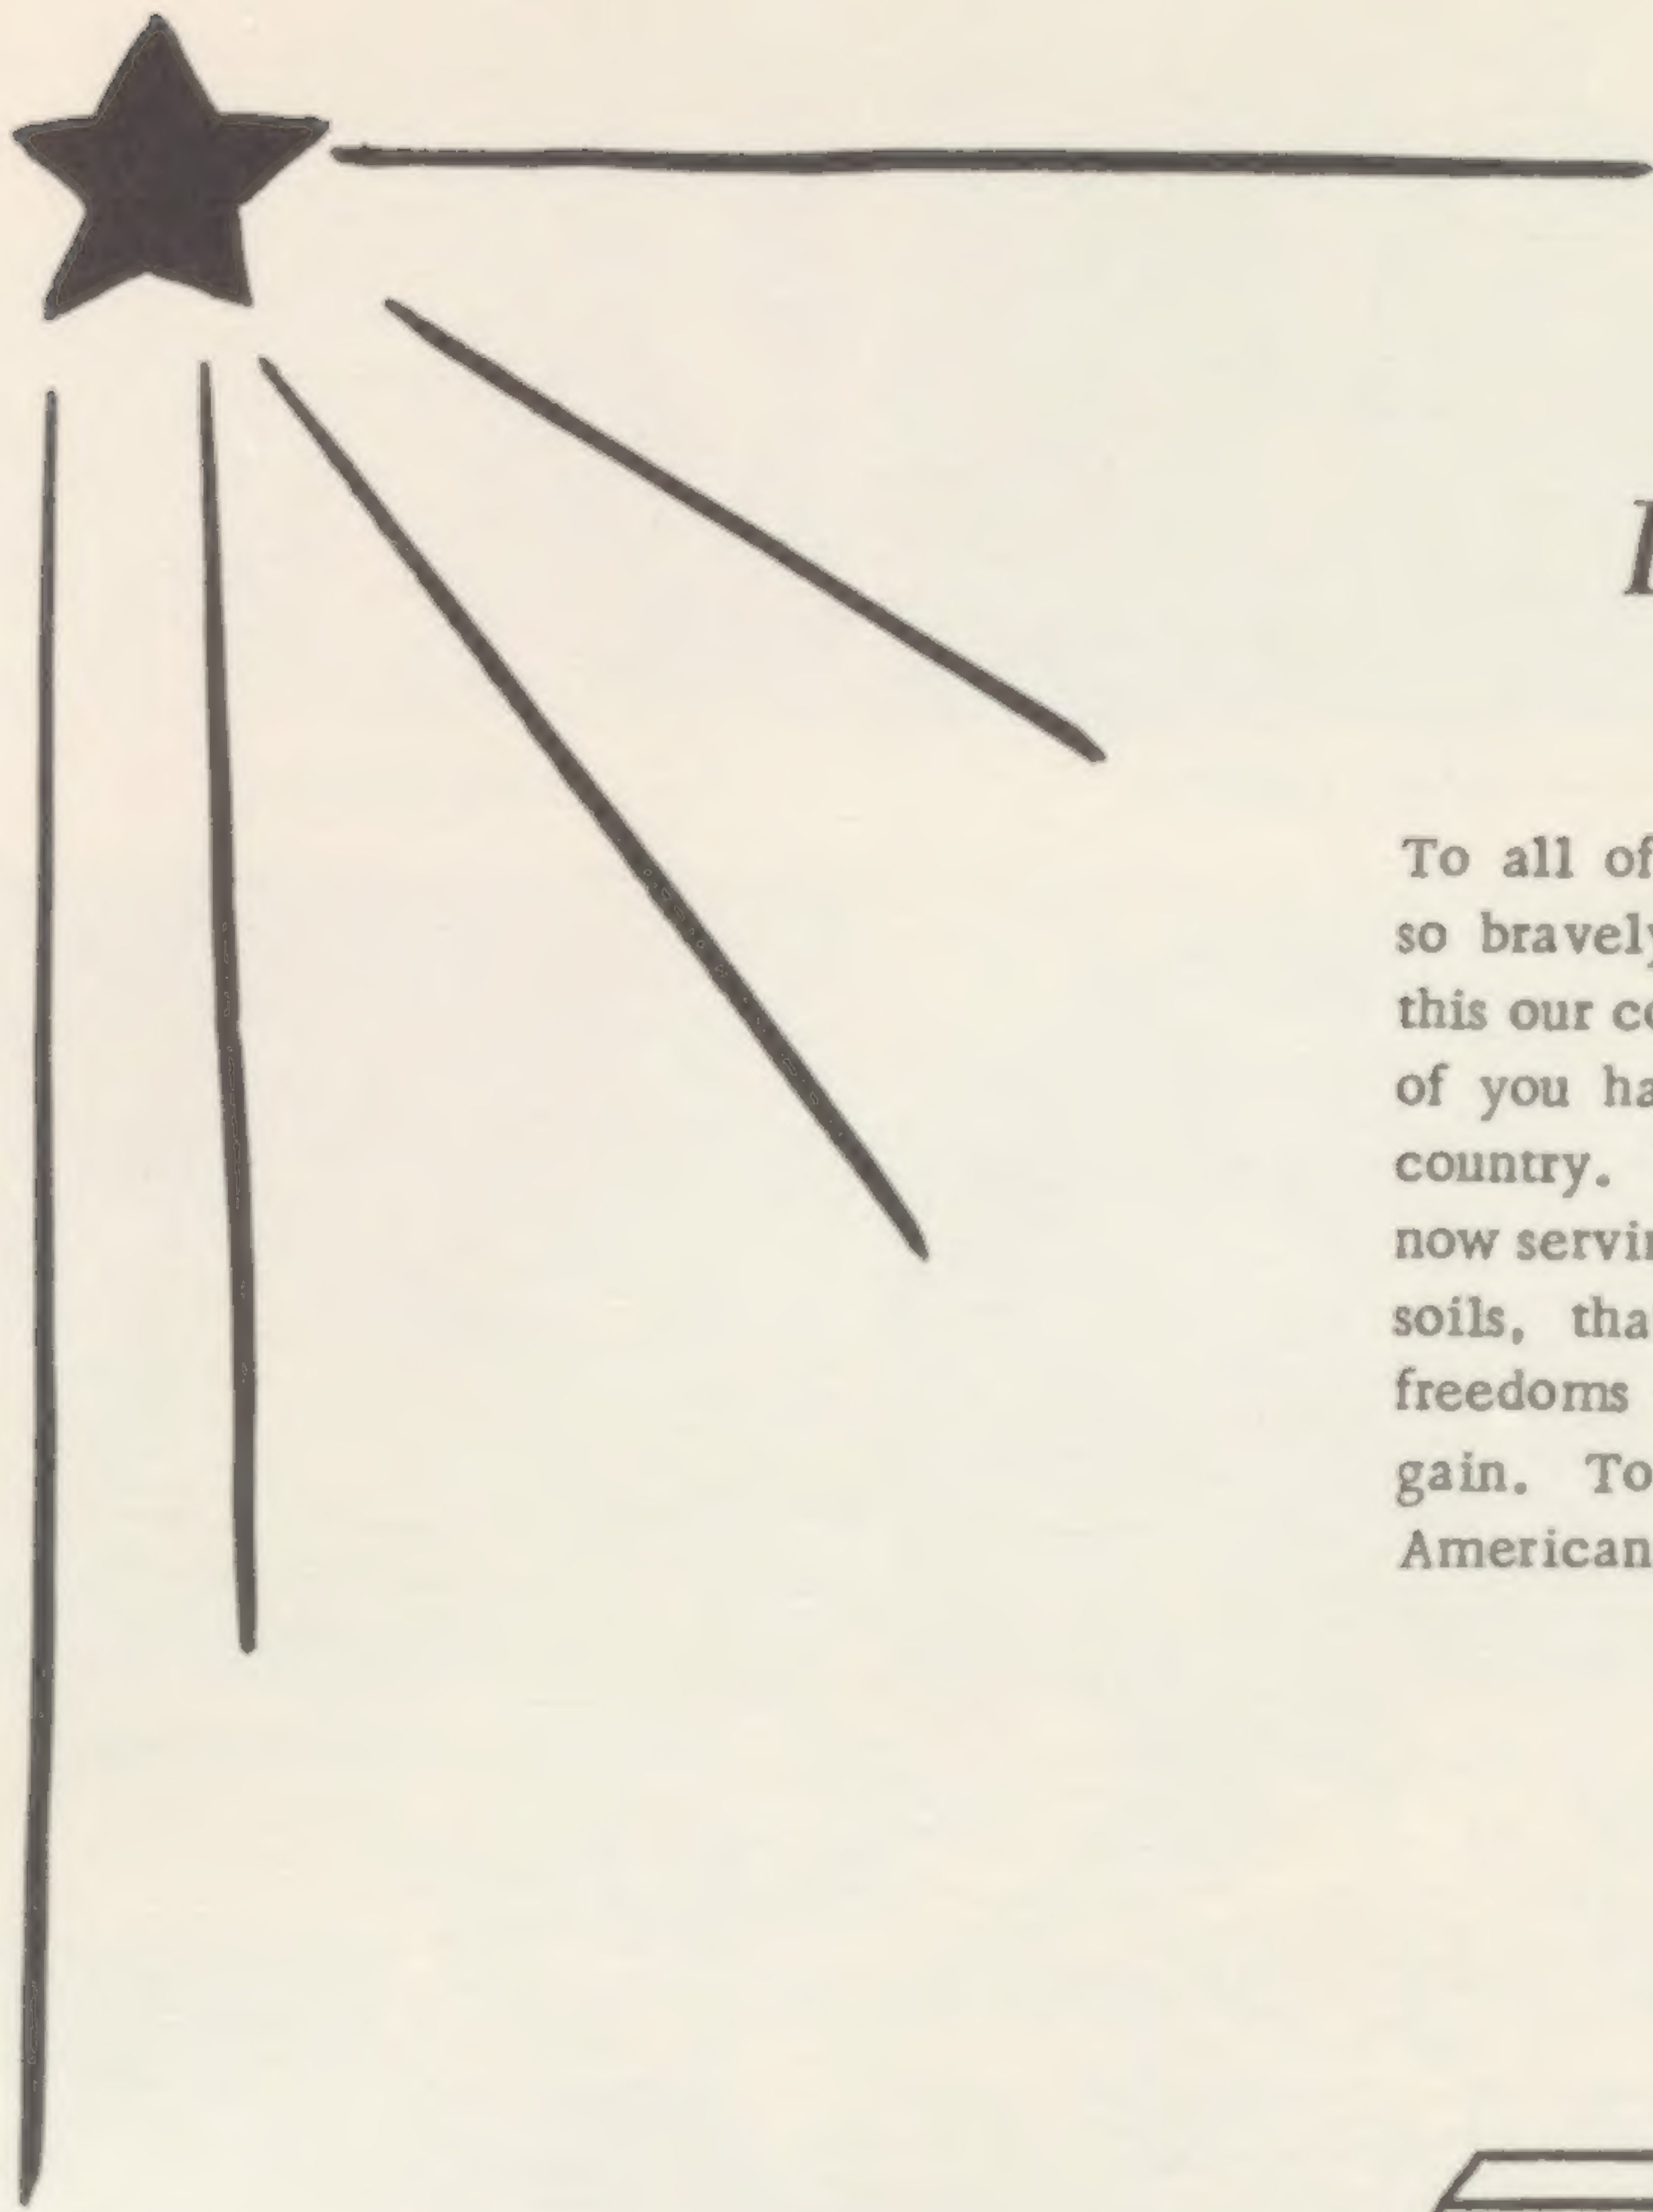

We wish to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Swink and the faculty for their continued help and guidance throughout our school years. Their patient training and example will be a guide for all of us in the future.

And finally, to all the Senior Classes in years to come, we extend best wishes for a happy and profitable Senior Year at Roff High.

Dedication

To all of our Roff boys and girls who have so bravely served in the Armed Forces of this our country we now pay tribute. Some of you have become great leaders for our country. Many have served and some are now serving throughout the world on foreign soils, that we may continue to enjoy the freedoms our forefathers fought so hard to gain. To us you are living symbols of true Americanism.

To the Gold Star Heroes who gave the last full measure of devotion the Seniors of Roff High School respectfully and humbly dedicate this edition of THE TIGER.

Our School

- - - its friendly walls hold fond memories of happy hours, cherished friendships, serious endeavor and lasting achievement. We, the last class to graduate from the old building, are happy to complete our courses within the walls that we entered four years ago; for there is a spirit and a tradition that lingers and permeates each nook and corner; and we feel that we have helped to establish it.

Words From Your Sponsor

It has been a privilege to sponsor this fine class of 1954. You have been a wonderful group to work for and with. To say I wish for each of you the best life has to offer might seem trite, but true.

May I, in parting, give you this little poem.

WHAT COUNTS

It's not what you get, but what you give.
It's not what you make, but how you live.
It's not the years that you spend on earth,
But kindly deeds that prove your worth.

So try your best from day to day.
Faithfully serve along life's way.
Be sincere; let these not depart:
Honesty, courage, beauty from your heart.

Know the truth, and acquire the treasure
Of wisdom and mercy in greater measure.
Cheerfully give and strive to possess
Universal love and happiness.

Future Farmers of America

When the Lord had it
all to Himself

Welders

WHEN THE LORD HAD IT
ALL TO HIMSELF

by

H. P. Carr

A Negro farmer bought a farm all covered in brush and briars.
The fences were down, the buildings ruined, the soil eroded and barren.

The Negro worked with might and main till things were up in shape.

The fences and buildings in good repair, the fields were nicely landscaped.

His crops were bountiful and large,
his barns were all well-filled.
He and his family wore good clothes,
there was money in the till;
One day the preacher came around
and looked the landscape o'er,
He said, "De Lawd and you, my friend, is doin well, for shore."

"Well, yes," the farmer proudly said, "I specs what you says is true,
De Lawd don't gimme no job so big
dat me an Him bofe can't do;
I reckon we is a doin right well,
layin sumpin on de shelf,
But Pahson, you orter a seed dis
place when the Lawd had it all
to Himself."

THE TIGER'S GROWL

EDITOR'S LAMENT

Getting out this Tiger Growl is no picnic.

If we print jokes folks say we are light-minded.

If we don't they say we are too serious.

If we publish original matter they say we lack variety.

If we publish things from other papers then we are too lazy to write our own.

If we don't print contributions then we lack proper appreciation of the other fellow.

If we do the paper is filled with junk.

Like as not someone will say we copied this from some other paper.

WE DID.

And So Goodbye

HIGH SCHOOL

"It had been many years
Since I'd been there
Same structure, same rooms--
Strange, that I should care
But, nostalgia flooded my being,
As I stood in the hall
Although gone, but not forgotten,
I could almost hear the call
Of voices stern and steady,
Even sometimes shrill--
These memories of school days
That once to me were real.

The auditorium, bright and light
Remembered too, that way
Rallies, meetings, shows
And, always there were plays.
How I wish but then,
I guess, . . . perhaps, we all do
Just once more I could hear,
And not be blue
The loud gong sounding
And the rush to places
And walk along to see
Familiar high school faces!"
